

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

76-9357

14 May 1976 .

Dear Mr. Secretary .

on my return from a very long trip overseas I found your kind letter for which many thanks . I too have enjoyed our association in the Netherlands and in your present key post and am most grateful to you for the kindness and understanding you have always shown.

With Every good wish to you and yours and to the many to which we are owe so much!

Faithfully

STATINTL

NAVY review(s) completed.

The Honorable J. William Middendorf, II
Secretary of the Navy
Washington, D. C. 20350

EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE DDCT

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20350

April 26, 1976

Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, USA
Central Intelligence Agency
Headquarters Building
Washington, D. C. 20505

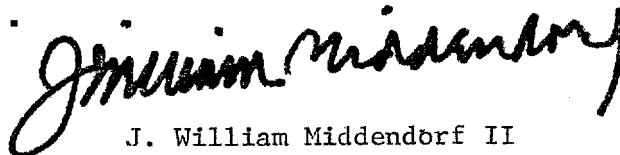

Dear General Walters:

I would like to send my best wishes for your future as you depart your present post and leave the military service. You have certainly served with distinction throughout your long military career.

I am honored to have served and worked with you during the past recent years while Ambassador to the Netherlands and as Secretary of the Navy.

You are a great American!

Sincerely,

J. William Middendorf II

25X1C